Grampian Gundog Club Field Trial Rules and Regulations

1. Dogs entered at Kennel Club Licensed Field Trials must be registered at the Kennel Club in accordance with Kennel Club Regulations for Classification and Registration B.
2. The society may reserve to itself the right to refuse any entry. The Kennel Club will be notified in writing of such refusals with reasons.
3. No substitutions of dogs allowed whilst reserves stand.
4. All dogs resident outside the UK must be issued with a Kennel Club Authority to Compete number before entry to the show/event can be made. All overseas entries without an Authority to Compete number will be returned to the exhibitor/competitor.
5. If entries or nominations exceed the number of permitted runners, the right to compete in a Trial shall be decided by ballot. Entries may be received by post or email.
6. Should circumstances so dictate the Society, in consultation with the judges, may alter arrangements as necessary. Such changes and the circumstances surrounding them will be reported to the Kennel Club.
7. Dogs under 18 calendar months of age on the closing date are ineligible for competition at Kennel club licensed working trials.
8. A dog must not compete in the same stake more than once.
9. Spayed bitches and castrated dogs may compete at the trial.
10. Bitches in season are not allowed at the trial. The mating of bitches within the precincts of the competition are forbidden.
11. No dog suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or having been exposed to such disease during the period of 21 days prior to the trial may compete. Competitors infringing this regulation will be liable to be fined and/or dealt with under Kennel Club Rule A11.
12. No modification may be made to the schedule after publication except by permission of the Kennel Club, followed by advertisement in appropriate journals if time permits before the closing of entries.
13. Judges at a Trial are prohibited from entering a dog which is recorded in their ownership or part ownership, handled at a trial, boarded or prepared for competition by one of the scheduled judges in the last 12 months prior to the trial: except when a judge is appointed in an emergency (See J13 a (5&6)). Dogs will be disqualified if proved to have been handled in the stake by the scheduled judge's spouse or immediate family, or resident at the same address as the scheduled judge.
14. Videography and photography will only be permitted with the express permission of the Chief Steward and the host. You must exercise sensitivity with regard to publication of photographs and are specifically asked not to publicise results of events until AFTER award presentations
15. The Club and Landowners accept no liability for claims arising from, or relating to, the running of the trials and cannot accept liability for injury, loss or damage to person or property, however occasioned.
16. By entering the Stake, you confirm you have read, understood and agreed the Club's Rules and Regulations/Health and Safety Policy.
17. Persons attending the trial must consider themselves under control of the Officials and make their own arrangements for accommodation and lunch.
18. Only handlers named on the entry form may handle the dog. All dogs must be on a lead except when under the Judges orders.
19. When the Chief Steward announces the start of a trial, competitors not present may forfeit their place to a reserve (J9b (1))
20. Only fully paid up members shall receive preference in the draw and in respect of their first dog only. Where two or more stakes of the same denomination in a season, are drawn on the same date; we may ask a member, who has been successful in the draw for more than one stake, which stake he/she wishes to run in (J6.h.). The order of running will be the order resulting from the draw and competitors notified by email or post if no email available..
21. Withdrawals must be notified to the FT Sec by telephone immediately or you may be liable to forfeit your entry fee. If the run is not taken up, you may be liable for the full entry fee if the place is not taken by another competitor.
22. Kennel Club Codes of Conduct specify behavior expected of those taking part in competitive Gundog work. Participants should be aware of their contents and never publicly impugn the decisions of the judge, nor criticize the host, ground or guns.
23. The system of judging will be entirely at the discretion of the judges
24. Members are responsible for the cleaning, engraving and timely return of trophies, prior to the stake the following year. Anyone not returning trophies/returning damaged trophies may be fined £20 or banned from Club events the following year.

25. Dogs must walk steadily to heel and remain steady and quiet through drives.
26. There will be a charge for Loss of armband (currently £15)
27. All competitors, gallery and guests not in line should remain at all times with the personnel appointed to carry the Red Flag and endeavor to stay in line with the Trial and not move forward or behind the Red Flag.

Welfare of Dogs

28. An exhibitor (or competitor) whose dog is entered at a Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not knowingly put their dogs' health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. A breach of this Regulation may be referred to the General Committee for disciplinary action under Kennel Club Rules and Regulations. The use of pinch collars, electronic shock collars or prong collars is not permitted at any working field trial event licensed by The Kennel Club. This shall apply at the venue and within the precincts of the trial.

29. DOGS IN VEHICLES ON HOT DAYS

Your dog is vulnerable and AT RISK if left in a vehicle in high temperatures and even on days considered as slightly warm. Please take care of your dog.

If your dog is found to be at risk forcible entry to your vehicle may be necessary without liability for any damage caused.

CONDITION OF ENTRY DECLARATION

Before entering a dog in a Novice Trial, The Kennel Club request that members adhere to the following statements.

If you, as the owner/handler, and/or your dog do not meet the criteria required, please refrain from entering any field trials until this has been achieved.

- I have helped at a field trial
- I have read the current copy of the 'J' Regulations and any amendments.
- I have had my dog out on shooting days
- My dog has picked wounded game
- My dog is steady to shot off the lead
- My dog is steady, off the lead, when another dog is sent for a retrieve
- As far as I am aware, my dog has no recurring eliminating faults.
